You are exposed to liquidity risk. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> In general the Underlying Fund manages its investments, including cash, such that it can meet its liabilities for the redemption of any shares that investors wish to sell. Investments held may need to be sold if insufficient cash is available to finance such redemptions. If the size of the disposals is sufficiently large, or the market is illiquid, then there is a risk that either the investments might not be sold or the price at which they are sold may adversely affect the net asset value of the Underlying Fund. | Refer to Sec 10 – Suspension of Dealing of the FIB for further information on suspension of dealing of the ILP Sub-Fund. |

Product-Specific Risks

- You are exposed to equities risk.
 - As the Underlying Fund invests in stocks, the value of those stocks may fluctuate, sometimes dramatically, in response to the activities and results of individual companies or because of general market and economic conditions or other events, including changes in investment sentiment, political and issuer-specific factors.
- You are exposed to country concentration risk.
 - The Underlying Fund's may invest in a single or small number of countries, it may have greater exposures to the market, political, policy, foreign exchange, liquidity, tax, legal, regulatory, economic and social risks of those countries than a fund which diversifies across a number of countries, thereby making the Underlying Fund more susceptible to any adverse events affecting those countries.
- You are exposed to derivatives risks
 - The Underlying Fund may use various Financial Derivative Instruments to reduce risks or costs or to generate additional capital or income in order to meet the investment objectives. While the judicious use of derivative instruments by experienced investment advisers such as the Investment Manager of the Underlying Fund can be beneficial, derivative instruments also involve risks different from, and, in certain cases, greater than, the risks associated with more traditional investments.
- You are exposed to legal and tax risks.
 - In some jurisdictions the enforcement of shareholders' rights may involve significant uncertainties
 - The Underlying Fund may be subject to withholding and other taxes.

VALUATIONS AND EXITING FROM THIS INVESTMENT

HOW OFTEN ARE VALUATIONS AVAILABLE?

- The ILP Sub-Fund is valued every Business Day to work out the unit price. Prices of the ILP Sub-Fund may currently be obtained from www.prudential.com.sg, Straits Times and The Business Times or such other publications or media as may from time to time be available.

Refer to Sec 7 – Withdrawal of Units, Sec 9 – Obtaining Prices of Units and, Sec 10 – Suspension of Dealing of the FIB for further information on valuation and exiting from the ILP SubFund.

HOW CAN YOU EXIT FROM THIS INVESTMENT AND WHAT ARE THE RISKS AND COSTS IN DOING SO?

- You can exit the ILP Sub-Fund by submitting a signed written instruction to us or the distributor from whom you purchased your ILP.
- If you do so within the review period of 14 days from the date you receive your Policy Document/Policy Booklet, premiums less medical fees (if any) incurred in assessing the risk under the policy will be refunded. We use a premium refund formula as determined by us, to work out the amount to be refunded to you. As you purchased an investment-linked type of policy, we will, in determining the amount that is payable to you, additionally be entitled to adjust the amount to reflect the change in market value of the underlying assets.
- Partial withdrawals are subject to minimum holding requirements. If you make a partial withdrawal, the remaining units in your ILP policy must be worth at least S$1,000 based on the bid price at the time of withdrawal. If not, you will not be able to make a partial withdrawal.
- Your withdrawal value is determined as follows:
 - If we receive your withdrawal application by 3.00 pm, the withdrawal value will be based on the bid price calculated on the next Business Day.
 - If we receive your withdrawal application after 3.00 pm, the withdrawal value will be based on the bid price calculated on the second Business Day following the day we receive the withdrawal application.
- You will normally receive the withdrawal value no later than 6 Business Days from the date we receive your withdrawal application.
- The withdrawal value that you will receive will be the bid price multiplied by the number of units sold. An example is as follows:

Refer to section on “Review Period” or “Free Look Period” of the PS for further information on exiting from the policy.

| | | | | |
|------------------------------|---|-----------|---|---------------------|
| 1, 000 | X | S$0.95 | = | S$950 |
| Number of Units Withdrawn | | Bid Price | | Withdrawal Value |
